CBW[®] Golden Light Dry (Malt Extract) is a brewing grade malt extract made from only the finest grade base malt. It provides valuable nutritive carbohydrates, proteins and free amino nitrogen as well as vitamins and minerals. One of the most nutritious of all sweeteners, it is an excellent growth media for cultures and fermented foods and beverages. It acts as a natural bulking agent and binder in bars and extruded foods and enhances body and viscosity in liquids syrups and sauce. It improves browning and volume in baked goods. The sweet malty flavor can be used to mask off or bitter notes and can enhance mocha, chocolate and cocoa flavors. Its larger granulation, increased dispersion, clean flavor and light color make it ideal for brewing and beverage applications.
